A. Introduction

1. Scope of the Policy

This policy regulates admission to all undergraduate and graduate degree programs where Anglo-American University (AAU) is the degree granting institution. Special admission policies apply to programs offered in cooperation with other universities, specifically the LLB and LLM programs, where the degree-granting institution is the University of London, and the MBA program, where the degree-granting institution is Chapman University.

2. Types of Students

- i. It is possible to study at AAU as a degree seeking student, as a short-term visiting student, or as an auditing student.
- ii. Degree seeking students can enter AAU as first year students if they obtained no academic credits at the level of study they apply for or if they did obtain such credits yet do not want to or cannot have them transferred to AAU. Students with credits transferable to AAU enter as transferring students.
- iii. There are three categories of visiting students:
 - (a) Erasmus exchange students come from a university with which AAU has an Erasmus+ agreement.
 - (b) University exchange students come from universities with which AAU cooperates on a different type of university exchange agreement. Please note that students must be nominated by their host university to be qualified as exchange students.
 - (c) Study abroad students come from other colleges/universities abroad or universities with which AAU cooperates on a non-exchange basis.
- iv. Auditing students are those who take specific courses for their self-enrichment without the benefit of a grade and academic credits.

3. Deadlines

- i. AAU has a rolling admissions policy, which means that applications may be accepted at any time of the year. AAU stops accepting applications from non-visa seeking applicants for the upcoming semester one week before the semester starts. Students with visa requirements who are not eligible for a visa waiver are requested to apply no later than 10 weeks before the start of the term. The official visa processing time by Czech authorities is 60 days from an interview at the Czech embassy or consulate, however delays are not uncommon. Applicants who submit the application after this date will be considered for admission to the following term.

- ii. The specific deadlines for each year will be posted on the AAU website.
- iii. Admitted applicants can commence their studies either at the beginning of regular fall intake (beginning of September), late fall intake (end of September), or spring intake (February). Study abroad and auditing applicants can also enroll in the shortened winter (January) and summer (late May or June) terms. Special deadlines apply to Erasmus and University exchange students who must submit their applications for the fall term by May 31 and for the spring term by November 15.

B. Admission Procedure

1. Application

- i. The application procedure starts upon the submission of a completed application form on AAU's website or the CommonApp platform. The receipt of the application is confirmed by an automated email in which the applicant is prompted to pay the application fee, CZK 2,000 (non-refundable).¹
- ii. After AAU receives the payment, the applicant is contacted via email by the Admissions office to submit the required documents for the type of study the student is applying to. The admissions specialist reserves the right to request additional information if deemed necessary.
- iii. Upon successfully submitting all required documents, the applicant will have an interview with the dean responsible for the program the applicant is applying to. The interview will be scheduled once all required documents are submitted and reviewed. Relevant experience, basic interest in the field, future goals, motivation to succeed, and language skills will all be assessed.

2. Acceptance

- i. The decision on the application of degree seeking students is made by the Dean of the school of study of the program which the applicant applied to. In all other cases it is made by the Dean of Students. This will be communicated to the applicant by email within one week of the interview or completion of the application, should an interview not be necessary. The offer of acceptance is valid for degree seeking and study abroad students for two upcoming semesters, and one semester for exchange students. If an applicant is not able to start their studies within these deadlines, they must reapply.
- ii. If the applicant fulfills all the relevant requirements set forth by AAU, the applicant will be admitted.
- iii. Should the applicant lack sufficient English proficiency, the applicant's admission will be probationary. Probationary admission means that the applicant may enroll in the program of study of the applicant's choice yet will be limited in the number and type of classes the applicant may register for in the first semester. The applicant will be informed by the Admissions office about ways to improve the applicant's language skills as well as options AAU provides to help the applicant achieve the required standards. Please note that a failure to demonstrate sufficient English proficiency by the start of the applicant's second semester at AAU will result in suspension from studies.
- iv. If the applicant applies as an undergraduate degree seeking student and fulfills all the relevant requirements set forth by AAU except for a completed secondary education, the applicant will be provisionally admitted. If the applicant applies as a graduate degree seeking student and fulfills all the relevant requirements except a completed bachelor's degree, the applicant will also be provisionally admitted. Should the applicant lack sufficient English proficiency, the applicant's admission will be probationary (Please see above for details). Upon submission of the applicant's diploma or an equivalent (please see below for details), the status will be adjusted to admitted.

Only admitted students can commence their studies at AAU.

- v. If the applicant's application receives a negative evaluation, the applicant will be rejected. The applicant can appeal the decision to the President within 30 days of the receipt of the decision.
- vi. AAU may also postpone the decision and request additional documents or an interview should any doubts about the authenticity or accuracy of the provided information arise.

3. Registration and Student Status

- i. Degree seeking, study abroad, exchange and auditing students must contact the Assistant Dean of the relevant school of study. The Assistant Dean will advise and guide the student on the available options and the registration process. The deadline for registration coincides with the end of the add/drop period of the term the applicant is applying to.
- ii. Admitted degree seeking, exchange and study abroad applicants get the student status upon registration. Auditing students do not have student status and are not eligible for Student visa. The student status comes into effect on the first day of the first semester of their studies at AAU.
- iii. Degree seeking students who do not provide authenticated documents proving completion of previous studies before registration can only be registered provisionally. Provisional registration lasts until authenticity of the documents has been proven according to the standards defined below but no later than by the end of the first term. Failure to prove authenticity of the documents will be considered violation of AAU's Standards of Conduct and Discipline Code and will lead to the termination of the student's study. Terminated students are not entitled to receive an official transcript.
- iv. Students who prove authenticity of the documents regarding previous qualification yet will not have them recognized as equal and valid in the Czech Republic under Act 561/2004 Coll. (undergraduate students) or Act no. 111/1998 Col. (graduate students) or the respective intergovernmental agreement (see sections Previous Qualification below), may only be registered in the chosen program of study under the US accreditation. Such students will not be entitled to all tax and other benefits pertaining to students studying in the Czech accredited programs. Czech authorities may not grant them a study visa during their studies. For record keeping purposes under Act no. 111/1998 Col., such students will be automatically registered as students of lifelong learning programs within AAU's accredited degree programs.

4. Payment Information

- i. In order to complete registration, non-visa seeking students must pay at least 50% of the tuition for the upcoming semester, and all applicable fees. The Admissions office will inform the student upon receiving the tuition payment.
- ii. In order to complete registration, visa-seeking students must pay the total tuition and all applicable fees for the upcoming semester. They will receive a detailed invoice which contains the exact amount and payment method details upon admission. AAU can issue the documents necessary to start the visa application procedure only after it receives full payment. Since the visa procedure takes 60 days from the day of submitting the documents at the respective embassy, students must process the payment as soon as possible. The confirmation of studies for visa purposes is not valid more than 180 days from the issuing date.
- iii. Should the applicant's visa be denied or, for reasons beyond the student's control, it is impossible to obtain the visa on time, AAU will provide a full refund upon the presentation of a written statement from the respective embassy. In the case of other reasons preventing the student from beginning the studies, AAU requires a written personal statement detailing those reasons. Full refund policy can be found in Financial Policy.

C. Requirements for Undergraduate Degree Seeking Applicants

1. English Proficiency

- i. All applicants must prove proficiency in the English language at level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) for enrollment in undergraduate programs.
- ii. Degree seeking applicants must prove their proficiency by submitting a sufficient score from one of the following English language proficiency tests:
 - (a) TOEFL (iBT min. 71, PBT min. 525)
 - (b) IELTS (min. 6 – minimum of 5.5 in each subtest)
 - (c) FCE (min. C)
 - (d) CAE (min. 160)
 - (e) BULATS (min. 60)
 - (f) City & Guilds - IESOL (Communicator, B2, First class pass)
 - (g) Pearson PTE (min. 59)
 - (h) IGCSE First Language English (C or better)
 - (i) IGCSE English as a Second Language (B or better)
 - (j) IB (English C or better at HL/SL)
- iii. Applicants eligible for an English proficiency waiver must meet one of the following criteria:
 - (a) complete a minimum of twelve months academic education leading to an awarded qualification, in a “majority English speaking” country (see below), no more than two years prior to the proposed date of enrollment, or
 - (b) complete high school education in an institution accredited by an officially recognized authority in a “majority English speaking” country (see below),
 - (c) hold West African Senior School Certificate Examination, or
 - (d) complete the International Baccalaureate Diploma (IB) Programme.These students will have to prove their English proficiency within an AAU admissions interview. AAU reserves the right to request English Proficiency exam score if deemed necessary.
- iv. The following countries are considered majority English speaking:

(a) Antigua and Barbuda	(k) Jamaica
(b) Australia	(l) New Zealand
(c) Bahamas	(m) St. Kitts and Nevis
(d) Barbados	(n) St. Lucia
(e) Belize	(o) St. Vincent and the Grenadines
(f) Canada	(p) South Africa
(g) Dominica	(q) Trinidad and Tobago
(h) Grenada	(r) USA
(i) Guyana	(s) UK
(j) Ireland
- v. Exceptionally, AAU may admit students on probation who fall marginally short of the required score for the respective language tests, or who fail to demonstrate sufficient English proficiency later during their AAU admissions interview, but show exceptional determination and overall academic quality. Such students will not be able to progress in their studies beyond introductory courses until they present a sufficient score in one of the recognized English language proficiency tests. AAU provides non-credit remedial courses to help students improve their English and achieve the required standards.

2. Previous Qualification

- i. AAU accepts proofs of previous qualification issued in the Czech, English or Slovak language. Documents issued in other languages must be officially translated into Czech or English language by a certified translator. In case that the certified translation is performed by a certified translator of other than Czech nationality, the sheets of paper with the translation have to be tied with verified copies of the documents they relate to in such a way that makes it impossible to additionally swap or replace the sheets with the translation. Translations tied with non-authenticated copies of documents will not be accepted.
- ii. While a scan of the documents listed below is sufficient for application, acceptance, and provisional registration to the first semester of studies, only the original or authenticated copy entitles the admitted applicant to registration to subsequent semesters.
- iii. Undergraduate applicants must present evidence of their secondary education. The type of the evidence differs according to the country of the secondary education and according to what accreditation applicants seek. AAU holds both U.S. and Czech accreditation for its undergraduate degree programs. This means that AAU diploma is automatically valid both in the U.S. and the Czech Republic. However, the document-submission requirements are more complex on the Czech side.
 - (a) Documents required for registration under both the Czech and US accreditation:
 - Czech High School Diploma (“vysvědčení o maturitní zkoušce”), or
 - German High School Diploma (“Zeugnis der Allgemeinen Hochschulreife”), or
 - Hungarian High School Diploma (“érettségi bizonyítvány”), or
 - Polish High School Diploma (“swiadectwo dojrzałości”), or
 - Slovak High School Diploma (“vysvedčenie o maturitnej skúške”), or
 - Slovenian High School Diploma (“Spričevalo o Splošni/Poklicni maturi”), or
 - European Baccalaureate diploma, or
 - certificate that generally recognizes equality and validity of the foreign high school diploma obtained under Act 561/2004 Coll. (so called nostrification certificate²).
 - (b) Documents sufficient for registration under the US accreditation:
 - High School Diploma or an equivalent document (like IB diploma, A levels certificate, GED certificate) that confirms successful completion of a secondary educational program abroad, which entitles its holder to apply for admission to university studies in the country under which jurisdiction the document was issued, and
 - document proving the contents and scope of education completed at a foreign school (High School Transcript).
- iv. If needed, the University may require the applicant to submit the following additional documents:
 - (a) Additional information concerning the contents and scope of foreign secondary education,
 - (b) additional information that the study program was offered by an institution authorized to provide education comparable with the secondary education under the Act 561/2004 Coll.;
 - (c) a statement of the relevant foreign secondary school or other relevant foreign body certifying that the applicant who completed a secondary educational program at the relevant secondary school is entitled to apply for admission to university at the country under which jurisdiction the document was issued.

3. Authenticity of Documents

How the authenticity of documents must be proven depends on the country where the document was issued. Below is a table providing all details for respective countries.

² Nostrification certificates are issued by Czech authorities and the procedure may require passing comparative examinations in selected secondary school subjects. AAU is ready to help applicants with this procedure.

4. Academic Preparedness

- i. Academic preparedness must be proven in the interview and the personal statement. AAU looks for students who show initiative, motivation, leadership, persistence, and service to others.
- ii. In the personal statement, applicants should elaborate about their academic, personal, and extracurricular achievements. The personal statement must be written in the students' own words and reflect their own opinions. Plagiarism of any part of the personal statement is considered as a serious violation of academic integrity and of AAU's internal rules and will lead to the rejection of the application.
- iii. In order to pass the admission interview, students must provide accurate information and demonstrate sufficient preparedness to succeed in the program of study.
